FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1873.

Republican Caucuses.

The Republican Voters of the City of Bangor are notified to meet in caucus at City Hall, on THURSDAY EVENING, March 6th, 1873, at 7½ o'clock P. M., to nominate candidates for Mayor, and on FRIDAY EVENING, March 7th, 1873, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the usual places of warding meeting in the several wards to nominate candidates for Aldermen, Councilmen and Ward officers, to be voted for at the next municipal election, and to act on any other business that may properly come before said meetings.

Per order of the Republican City Committee.

HERMON BARTLETT, Chairman.

February 27th, 1873.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION

The great gathering of Republicans at City Hall last evening, furnished the most practical evidence that there is no intention to surrender the control of our municipal affairs into the hands of an incongruous combination, having no political responsibility and engineered by a clique which has constantly been held in political disgrace. It was most gratifying to see the Republicans rallying in such force to assert their authority as the majority of this community. The challenge thrown out by much trumpeted "Reform" caucus, which was boasted as "altogether the largest caucus that has been held in Bangor for several years," was promptly accepted and with a most decisive result, the regular Republican list of for Mayor last night exceeding by more than one third the number crammed in by the undersigned faction. It was a great caucus, and it augurs well for the future welfare of our city that our voters are so mindful of their public duties.

The general discussion of candidates which had been going on among the people for some time prior to the caucus, narrowed the choice down to gentlemen, Moses Giddings, Esq., and Lowell Blake, Esq., both possessing high recommendations for the office. The voting for these gentlemen was conducted with the greatest harmony and good feeling, and resulted in the nomination of Mr. Giddings on the first ballot by a decisive majority. The friends of both promptly and cheerfully acquiesced in the choice and ratified it by enthusiastic cheers of greeting to Mr. Giddings on his appearance upon the platform.

The modest, dignified and practical words with which he accepted this expression of the confidence of his fellow citizens bespeak the character of our candidate for Mayor. A native of Bangor, fully acquainted with our public needs and familiar by long and efficient service with the details of our public administration, he will bring to the office experience and ability of a high order while the Chief Magistracy will lose none of its dignity by his elevation to its powers and responsibilities. His reputation is a guarantee of the faithful discharge of whatever trust is imposed in his keeping, and his devotion to the city which has been the home of his lifetime is beyond a doubt. At his hands the community need fear no countenancing of reckless measures and no bigoted or arbitrary exercise of power. Accepting the position simply as one of trust and honor, it will be his object to promote the interests of all classes of the people.

As we are about to lose the services of our excellent Mayor with the Republicans have given to Bangor, we are glad to announce the nomination of a gentleman who, we have every reason to believe, will prove a worthy successor. Now, let us nominate our best men in the several Wards, and then go to the polls on Monday, and elect them by a decisive majority.

P. S. VOTE FOR THE GRAB

A considerable share of the opposition to the grab given to the distribution and compensation of the Congressional salary grab, and we present the yeas and nays of both Houses, classified politically. It will be remembered that the measure voted for included a provision giving each member of Congress a bonus of $5,000 per year over and above his regular salary and allowances already received. This places about $1,500,000 in the pockets of the departing members to take home as a souvenir of the liberality of the Forty-second Congress in dealings with itself. There would be little complaint of the actual future increase of salaries were it not saddled with a compensation bill for the votes to carry it in. It will be seen that the present Congress is paid off more than is proper in the success of its members receiving the mileage and other extras, without the prospect that traveling expenses are to be paid, so that the emoluments of the Forty third Congress will be actually disparaged compared with those of its predecessor. Here is the vote in detail, the Democrats and Liberals being designated by italics:

SENATE—Yeas—Messrs. Alcorn, Ames, Bayard, Bogy, Brownlow, Caldwell, Cameron, Carpenter, Clayton, Clover, Davis, Flanagan, Frelinghuysen, Gilbert, Hamilton, of Texas, Hamilton, of Md., Hitchcock, Ingalls, Logan, Machen, Morrill, of Maine, Morton, Nye, Osborne, Pool, Pratt, Ramsey, Rice, Robertson, Sawyer, Spencer, Stewart, Stockton, Tipton, Trumbull, Window and West.—40.

YEAS—Messrs. Adams, Averill, Banks, Bigham, Blair, Mo., Boarman, Buckley, Burchard, Bogler, Mass., Butler, Tenn., Cairo, Cobb, Coburn, Cochlan, Conner, Crocker, Crossland, Darrall Dickey, Du Bose, Duell, Dyer, Eldridge, Elliott, Foster, Penn., Garfield, Garrett, Getz, Giddings, Golladay, Griffith, Hancock, Harris, Harmer, Hasper, Hays, Ala., Hazleton, N. C., Sargent, Shanks, Sheldon, Sherwood, Sloss, Snap, Snyder, Stevens, Stone, Stoughton, Stowell, St. John, Sutherland, Sypher, Taffe, Thomas, Tucker, Van Vorhes, N. Y., Turner, Tuthill, Twitchell, Tyndale, Vancleve, Vance, Wakeman, Whiteley, Williams, Ind., Wilson, Ind., Winchester and Young—112.

NAYS—Messrs. Ambler, Archer, Atkins, Barlow, Barnum, Beatty, Bell, Bird, Blair, Mich., Bright, Buffinton, Bunnell, Burchard, Campbell, Clark, Coburn, Conger, Clifton, Cox, Crebs, Crocker, Davis, Dawes, Denison, R. Lawrence, Ely, Farnsworth, Finkelburg, Foster, Ohio, Foster, Mich., Frye, Gunckel, Hale, Hendelson, Handley, Harris, Va., Havens, Hawley, Ill., Hawley, Conn., Hay, Ill., Hazleton, Wis., Hibard, Hill, Hoar, Holman, Kellogg, Conn., Kerr, Ketcham, Killinger, Lewis, Lynch, Marshall, McClelland, McCormick, McCrary, McIver, McLelyre, Morgan, Merrick, Monroe, Niblack, Ind., Orr, Packer, Palmer, Parker, N. H., Pendleton, Poland, E. H. Roberts, Rusk, Scofield, Sessions, Shellabarger, Shoemaker, Slater Slocum, Smith, N. Y., Smith, Ohio, Smith, Vt., Speer, Sprague, Starkweather, Stevens, Stevenson, Terry, Townsend, Penn., Upson, Walden, Waldron, Warren, Wells, Wheeler, Willard, and Wilson, Ohio,—94.

By analyzing the above record, we find that in the Senate 24 Republicans and 12 Democrats voted in favor of the grab and 22 Republicans and 5 Democrats against it; the Republican vote being almost evenly divided, while the Democratic vote was more than two thirds in its favor.

In the House 63 Republicans and 30 Democrats voted in its favor and 59 Republicans and 35 Democrats against it; showing a less unfavorable ratio for the Democrats than in the Senate, but still favorable to the Republicans. We find but four New England members in both branches who favored the measure, Mess. Morrill of Maine, and Banks, Butler and Twitchell of Massachusetts. Of the 102 members of the House voting for it, 35 were from the Southern States and 67 from the Northern, while there were only about a dozen Southern votes against it. Of the seven members of the Maine delegation, five are on record against the measure, and Mr. Peters would have added another opposing vote had he not been absent from the House engaged in the labors of a Conference Committee, a number of which were worked almost night and day to prevent the failure of some of the most important public measures.

We think the opposition will find hard work in extracting party capital from the above showing, and we have reason to be proud of the record of our own State and of New England.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S SECOND INAUGURATION.

The advent of the new administration could not have been attended with more gratifying evidences of national good will, if the President had been chosen by the united voices of the whole people. Not only in Washington but in all the leading cities of the country, appropriate notice was taken of the inauguration by the firing of cannon and flags flying from the public buildings. The civic and military display at the Capitol surpassed all former displays on like occasions, and not a cloud appeared to cast a shadow over the incoming of the new Government. The President and higher officers of the Government have the better reason to trust the sincerity of these manifestations of good will, because they are not prompted, as is often the case, by the expectation of political rewards. The administration is to day the same as yesterday, and the organization of the Government service in all its branches will doubtless continue unchanged, except for cause.

The brief address with which the President enters upon his second term, is marked with the directness and simplicity which are the ruling traits of his character. It requires capacity and magnanimity of no ordinary kind, in an hour of triumph like this, to speak of the past with such modesty and of the future with such forbearance as are manifested in this address. Never as the President was to civil distinctions of this character, he has been an apt pupil; and has learned that in statesmanship as in war nothing can stand against the mutations of public opinion, and the everlasting and sometimes terrific conflict of interests, but a clear and strong sense of personal duty and absolute self-control. In this respect Grant is the exact opposite of his immediate predecessor, who was both ignorant of the obligations of a Chief Magistrate to the country, and incapable of self control under any kind of unexpected fortune. In view of the perilous condition to which he brought his country, it is difficult to value too highly the even, firm and patriotic spirit with which his successor has met the responsibility of his high position, securing for the nation, so far as he has had power over its destinies, order and prosperity at home, and the respect of mankind.

With the President's desire to secure equal civil rights for all citizens of the Republic; to preserve peace with the Indian tribes and help them in the way of civilization; to correct the abuses which have grown up in the civil service of the country, by prosecuting the reforms already begun; to restore good feeling between different sections of the country, and to promote the industries, commerce, education and all the means of national wealth and happiness, he may well ask the co-operation of all parties. The intelligent interest he has taken in all measures calculated to promote these objects, gives ample assurance that any fault in making them a part of the settled policy of the Government will not be owing to Executive initiative or hostility. But there is much to be done in all these respects before those who control events can cease to work for them; and until that time comes, the country can well afford to postpone the conquests of new territory which fascinate so many people, and which the President has so strong a sympathy. Too much of the territory we already have is unimproved, too large a portion of our fellow-citizens entertain loose and altogether inadequate notions of Republican Government, to make it desirable to increase the dead weight of uncongenial matter. There are elements of weakness in our system already, which may well task the patience and ingenuity of statesmanship; and while they remain the President has ah ample field for the exercise of all his power.—Boston Interiser.

Dr. Loeb publishes a card correcting our statement as to the meeting in his back office. He says it is a "large and spacious" room of office in which The People are to take counsel and from which the People's Voice is to give utterance to the People's Choice for City officers. We have no doubt that the worthy Doctor will afford the People ample accommodations and the best of entertainment.

SENATOR PATTERSON'S CASE. Shortly after midnight of Monday's session, Senator Patterson arose and asked that his case be taken up. Senator Carpenter said that at that late hour in the session it was manifestly impossible to give the matter a full and fair discussion. He was sorry, but there was not sufficient time. He proposed that the matter should be left by Mr. Patterson with his friends with the assurance that it should have satisfactory consideration after March 4. The Senate would have no jurisdiction over his person but would always have jurisdiction over the subject. It could come up by a resolution, and he hoped that course would be taken. Senator Hamlin and Senator Anthony of the Republican side, and Senator Thurman also expressed the same opinion. Mr. Anthony said he had not considered the matter and must be excused from voting if the matter came up now. Senator Thurman said he must follow the recommendation of the Committee if the matter was pushed. Mr. Morrill, the Chairman of the Committee, said he expressed no dissatisfaction, but if this course was pursued, the Committee would feel relieved of all responsibility. Mr. Patterson said that the assurance that a full and fair discussion would be had was all he asked. He did not wish to address the Senate himself. He rested on his statement. The report was then laid on the table.

The Kennebec Journal says that Hon. Charles L. Dunning of Piscataquis, and Hon. E. C. Farrington of Oxford, resigned their positions of State Senators at the close of the recent session of the Legislature. The former has been Postmaster at Brownville for more than fifteen years, and the latter has recently been appointed postal agent, which offices they could not hold under President Grant's recent proclamation, if they continued to fill the offices which they have resigned.

The Press thinks the Legislature left the cider question in more doubt and uncertainty than the Schleswig-Holstein question ever was.

The N. Y. World's Washington special writing on Monday evening said: "Speaker Blaine cannot be held responsible if jobs are put through the House during the closing hours of Congress. He did all in his power to pay to have the various bills distinctly reported and generally understood, despite the assertions of Mr. Hickey, of Pennsylvania, that the House could not be made to understand anything. He even went so far as to pause before announcing the passage of a bill to ask if the measure was understood, and persisted in maintaining the strictest order up to the very moment of taking a recess. This was no easy task, as many members, and notably those who turn their backs on public life to-morrow, were decidedly unruly. The Speaker had finally to threaten to address the turbulent spirits by name, and then silence like a gentlice caine to heal the blows of sound."

THE SPANISH REPUBLIC. A Madrid dispatch states that Senor Olozaga has notified Castellar, Minister of Foreign Affairs by telegraph, that the Representatives in Paris, of the different powers of Europe, have decided to send a collective note to the government of Spain, declaring their belief, that their respective Governments will cease to hold diplomatic relations with Spain, in the event of the proclamation of a Federal Republic.

Advices from Gibraltar state that 200 Carbineers attached to the Spanish garrison at San Rocque, seven miles northwest of Gibraltar, attempted to create a rising in favor of Don Carlos but the demonstration was suppressed and the offenders imprisoned.

To Manufacturers.

I would like to call the attention of those parties who are interested in the manufacture of Bangor Lumber, as it leaves the mills, into the various articles for which it is designed, previous to leaving the State, o the superior location and facilities of owing by Steam Mill or Factory at Hampden.

1st. I have a full acre of wharf privilege on which can be stacked millions of feet of sawed lumber as it rises from the river.

2d. My factory is situated on the wharf under the lee, for a N. W. wind, of a high steep bank, so that one can be run as well in the winter as in summer, without further artificial heat than is generated from the boiler.

3d. The water for generation of steam is from a never failing spring, high up the hill side, and led underground into the basement of the Engine room. Durin the cold winter of 1872, neither spring pipe or water, knew the effects of frost.

4th. And all manufactured goods can be shipped or taken from the mill by vessel or steamer, without the expense of trucking.

5th. The mill is exempt from taxation for nine years from the present time. Labor is as cheap, and prices of living cheaper than in Bangor. We can find equally as good markets for our manufactured goods. The Factory is large, substantial, well finished on the outside and painted; furnished with as good an engine as ever was made, and new boiler of nearly double the capacity of the engine, shafting and belting; dry room, office, tool room, attics, and large story house adjacent.

Any parties interested in manufacturing, are requested to call and see the property.

I will sell the whole or a portion. Or, I will put the mill in a joint stock company. Or I will accept half in cents act on terms somewhat favorable to myself.

[illegible] THE POLICE—DISPATCH [illegible] TO HOUSE.

[illegible] March 6. The following [illegible] received during the night by [illegible] from Gen. Kellogg:

[illegible] March 6. An armed mob [illegible] the Metropolitan Police [illegible] the Court Buildings. We had [illegible] repulsed, killing [illegible] Badger with a [illegible] upon the river, capturing and [illegible] the former. The police station [illegible] with prisoners. A com[illegible] last after the mob [illegible] were scattering to their [illegible] were distinctly ordered to [illegible] by them.

[illegible] ARMY—A CONVERTED ARSENAL.

[illegible] March 6. This morning's [illegible] In the early part [illegible] proved to be rather [illegible] of a serious nature was on [illegible] appeared that the success at [illegible] demonstration of the premiers [illegible] followed up by an attack [illegible] stations throughout the city. [illegible] reports prevailed during [illegible] at noon, the excitement [illegible] there being nothing further [illegible] the feeling.

[illegible] ORGANIZING HIS FORCES.

[illegible] however, and about nightfall [illegible] movement that a movement of a [illegible] foot. Bodies of men were [illegible] the different places in the centre of the city, and arms were freely [illegible] on the street, that [illegible] clubs had offered [illegible] thousand men. Early in [illegible] considerable number of bodies [illegible] justify this assertion. [illegible] had assembled at the Low[illegible] street, another on Poydras [illegible] gathering was reported in the [illegible] Sugar Shed.

[illegible] STATION FIRED INTO—THE [illegible] RETIRED.

[illegible] another squad of militia [illegible] street, and emerging into [illegible] of St. Louis Cathedral, fired [illegible] rose. The fire was returned [illegible] a half grazing Gen. Ogden's [illegible] retreated, but in about [illegible] were re-enforced by [illegible] were then stationed at the [illegible] Royal with Toulouse, and St. [illegible] And, at the head of St. Peter [illegible] the corner of Chartres and St. [illegible] there was also a guard placed [illegible] of Chartres and Toulouse-sts.

[illegible] BROKEN.

[illegible] to finish the station house was [illegible] and begun. The stores of P. Durand, [illegible] and L. E. Lee, containing arms, [illegible] broken open by the mobs and their [illegible] stolen.

[illegible] BEING ARTILLERY TO HEAR—A SHARP ENGAGEMENT.

[illegible] Gen. Badger, with three companies of police, numbering 80 men each, and [illegible] of artillery, formed at the corner of [illegible] street. The piece was soon after loaded, and taken down street, the infantry [illegible] by flanks. When they reached [illegible] street the firing commenced, a rak[illegible] being delivered from the corner of [illegible]-son street. The police returned the fire, [illegible] the confusion had some difficulty in [illegible] the piece. There was a considerable [illegible] firing for about 15 minutes, [illegible] that the gun was gotten into position [illegible] discharged twice down Chartres street.

[illegible] DRIVEN BACK—A THIRD SHOT FIRED!

This created some indecision in the ranks of the militia, and they fell back momentarily [illegible] rapidly rallied, and the firing was resumed. A third shot was discharged, and the militia retreated into Jackson square the police remaining on Chartres street between Conti-st and St. Peter-sts. At 10 o'clock the [illegible] were being rapidly reinforced from all [illegible] of the city, the squads moving in the direction of Jackson Square.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.

So far as is known one man was killed and [illegible] wounded of the militia. Only one casualty is reported among the police, a man badly wounded in the arm.

[illegible] OFFICER APPEARS—ORDERS TO DISPERSE THE MOB.

[illegible] Gen. Emory's staff, arrived at the corner of St. Peter and Levee streets at [illegible] and asked for the commander of the mob. Some one informed the officer that [illegible] was not a mob, but citizens. Col. Ogden and Gen. Waggaman coming up, the United States officer informed them that he came from Gen. Emory and had orders to request the mob to disperse, adding that Gen. Emory had received instructions to that effect from Washington. Col. Ogden responded that he would order the men to retire and disperse immediately. He requested that Mr. Bond, who held a position in the Court Buildings, be permitted to pass through the lines with his men. The officer said he could merely submit this request to the commander of the police. Col. Ogden went down and endeavored to have Bond released, but his efforts were of no avail.

[illegible] SMITH AND THE INSURGENT CHIEF.

We learn that about this time Gen. Waggaman, commanding the militia, was met by Gen. Smith, of the U. S. army, in front of the Cathedral. Gen. Smith requested Waggaman in the name of the United States to disperse, which the latter at once complied with, remarking at the time to Smith, "Despite your courtesy I cannot say that I am glad to meet you, since it appears that I am destined to have that pleasure only in the capacity of a prisoner." It will be remembered that Waggaman surrendered the armory to the officer last December.

THE MOB DISPERSED—THE ORDERS FROM WASHINGTON.

Afterwards the crowd gradually dispersed and left the police in quiet possession of the buildings. The action of the U. S. troops was taken up in obedience to the following telegram:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.

General Emory, Commanding the Department of the Gulf, New Orleans, La.:

The President directs you to prevent any violent interference with the State Government of Louisiana. Acknowledge the receipt.

(Signed) W. T. SHERMAN,
General.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION—POLICE STATIONS RECAPTURED.

The seventh precinct station was recaptured by the police at half past two this morning. General Badger, with fifty men and one piece of artillery, reached the station and making a detour to the rear of the building advanced toward it and sent officer Murphy to demand its surrender. Before the officer reached the station the attacking party were received with a volley from shot-guns of perhaps seventy-five men and immediately returned the fire. The men retreated, and the police, rushing in captured the station and seven prisoners.

MORE VICTIMS.

It was then ascertained that M. K. Chandler had been mortally wounded, the ball having penetrated his abdomen. Another man named Ernest Etiraudhe was struck in the arm with buckshot. Chandler was conveyed to a drug store. There is no hope entertained of his recovery.

THE CITY STRONGLY GUARDED—THE FUSIONISTS BEYOND PREMATURE.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—10 A. M. The city is perfectly quiet. No trouble is apprehended. It is stated that McEnery did not authorize the movement last night. The police are in quiet possession of the city, with U. S. troops in easy supporting distance. The militia are dispersed. The citizens generally seem to regard the attack of last night as premature. The object of the Fusionists in making it does not clearly appear.

LATER—ODD FELLOWS' HALL TAKEN BY POLICE—RENEWED EXCITEMENT.

NOON—The police, armed as infantry, has just taken possession of Odd Fellows' Hall, where the McEnery Legislature therefore met. Mr. L. C. Moncure, the Speaker, and other members in the hall at the time were taken to the station. About 1000 Metropolitans occupy Lafayette Square. There is considerable excitement and a large crowd has gathered about the Square and Odd Fellows' Hall.

THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER SETTLED THE TROUBLE.

General Sherman received the following from General Emory this afternoon:

NEW ORLEANS, March 6. Since my dispatch of 11:15 the city has been perfectly quiet. Order prevails everywhere this morning. I think the announcement of the President's order to me of last night will effect a permanent settlement of the trouble here.

MCENERY'S ANSWER.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6. McEnery addressed a note to Gen. Emory to-day asking if he countenanced the seizure of the Fusion Legislative Hall etc. Gen. Emory replied that he was not consulted, but if it was by order of Gov. Kellogg, whom he was instructed to recognize as the Executive of Louisiana, he should use all the military force at his command to prevent any violent interference with the recognized State authorities.

All is quiet this evening.

SPECIAL SESSION OF THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.

Vice President Wilson called the Senate to order. Messrs. Jones, of Nevada, and Wadleigh of N. H., and Ferry, of Conn., were sworn in. Mr. Spencer, of Alabama, was about to take the oath when Mr. Bayard objected until the question of the credentials of his contestant, Sykes, were considered. A discussion ensued as to the validity of the credentials of Spencer and the memorial in behalf of Sykes.

Mr. Hamlin, from the committee appointed to wait upon the President, reported that he had performed the duty and the President's reply was that, as at present advised, he would have no communications to make to the Senate except in the form of nominations. The debate on the credentials of Spencer was continued, but without action the Senate adjourned.

A COSTLY PUPPY. The Supreme Court now in session at Dover decided an important dog case last week,—brought up in action to recover damages done by said dog in the killing of nine sheep belonging to one Dow of Atkinson, in July, 1871. The jury returned a verdict against deft.—John Blake for $65 and costs, amounting in all to about $200. The Observer pertinently asks: "Who says that dog farming isn't profitable?"

THE TRAINS, which have been decidedly mixed during the week thus far, were straightened out yesterday on all the roads from this city. The night express from Boston was only an hour and a quarter late yesterday morning, and the Maine Central evening train arrived a little before 9 o'clock. The E. & N. A. Railway trains were run nearly on time. The Bangor & Piscataquis road is again open, the breaking out train having reached Guilford at noon yesterday, and returned to Oldtown last night. It is hoped to have the Belfast Branch cleared of snow by Saturday night.

FATAL ACCIDENT. On Monday last Mr. Elliot Jordan 2d, of Waltham, was driving an ox team with a heavy load of logs, more than 1500 feet, on two sleds. The snow being very deep and the road narrow, Mr. Jordan took hold of the ox bow, and while descending a hill the near ox tripped him thus breaking his hold of the bow, and throwing him under the oxen. Before he could extricate himself the first sled was upon him, and the team stopped when the forward runner was part way across his body. He started the oxen again and crawled far enough to avoid the second sled, then stopped them again, and by a strong effort, succeeded in disengaging them from the sled, hoping they would return to the camp. They however went on to the landing. This was about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The men at the camp becoming uneasy at his long absence went in search, found him at 8 o'clock in the evening, carried him to camp and immediately sent for a doctor. Mr. Jordan lived in great suffering until 8 o'clock the next morning when he expired. He was 48 years old.

NEW SECRET SOCIETY. We learn from a reliable source that a number of good little boys on the East side have formed a society for mutual improvement, which bids fair to make some business for the S. F. T. P. O. C. T. A. These benevolent lads saved the pennies given them by their indulgent parents and those earned by doing errands, etc., until they had money enough to buy a dog. Then they bought such a nice big dog. He is white, with pretty little red eyes, ears cropped close to his square head, forelegs crooked like a parenthesis, and an under jaw like the hopper of a grist mill. His only defects are sundry gashes and scratches about the face, neck and forelegs, which, however, being pink contrast beautifully with his hair. And these nice boys love that dog; they are so afraid he will hurt his mouth that they cover his nose with leather straps, and lest any one should steal him, they keep him chained in a stable lot. They are so fond of him that they spend a large part of their time in catching cats, which they carry to him to play with, and letting him loose they shut the door and play through the cracks to see the spontaneous combustion about the room. It might be objected that the feelings of the cats are not considered, but these little boys say that the things they do to those cats are done for the benefit of the cats. They probably wouldn't live long any way, and they can't suffer much. These boys are doing a fine work, and we shall expect a time to see them called from their sports to more serious and better occupations at the spacious stone mansion, in the town adjoining Rockland, where they may remain under the guidance of good men who will love them so that they will not be allowed out of sight. It is a glorious future to look forward to!

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

Agreeably to the call published in our columns the Republican voters of Bangor met in City Hall last evening for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor for the ensuing municipal year. The hall was densely packed on the floor and in the galleries, and at half past 7 o'clock the assembly was called to order by Captain Hermon Bartlett, Chairman of the City Committee, who read the call and nominated Hon. S. D. Thurston as Chairman. Mr. Thurston on taking the chair said that this was a Republican caucus, and in that party could be found as good men to carry out reforms as in any other.

W. P. Hubbard, Esq., was chosen as Secretary, and the chairman appointed John W. Palmer of Ward 1, S. B. Morrison of Ward 2, O. H. Ingalls of Ward 3, Geo. W. Whitney of Ward 4, Charles Sawtelle of Ward 5, J. W. Humphrey of Ward 6, and Benj. B. Thatcher of Ward 7, a committee to receive, sort and count the votes for candidate for Mayor. After some discussion, on motion of J. F. Snow Esq. the balloting commenced. The ballot resulted as follows:—

Whole number of votes,	457
Necessary for a choice,	229
Moses Giddings had	268
Newell Blake "	189

and Moses Giddings was therefore declared nominated as the Republican candidate for Mayor.

Mr. Blake then arose and thanked his friends for the expression of their confidence in him and said he was perfectly satisfied with the vote. He therefore moved that the nomination be made unanimous, which was done.

Loud and repeated calls were made for Mayor Wheelwright, but the assembly were deprived of the pleasure of listening to him as he was at the time attending a session of the Board of Aldermen and was unable to be present.

Hon. H. E. Prentiss was called upon, came forward and said he wished to speak a few words as a matter of business. He said the people had always had good Mayors, and he was perfectly satisfied with the present incumbent. The present, he said, was a critical time for Bangor, as a bill had passed the City Government and the State Legislature permitting the city to loan its credit for two millions of dollars in behalf of the Aroostook Railroad. This bill provides that the security shall be satisfactory to the Board of Aldermen, and it was therefore necessary that a good Board be elected—men who would be careful and watchful of the city's interests as if the issue of this two millions of bonds depended on each individual member.

William Boyd, Esq., followed Mr. Prentiss and said he would like to ask if this was a railroad meeting and whose land the road would go through?

Mr. Prentiss replied that it did not go through his land, and he had opposed the bill before the City Council, for which some charged that he already had a railroad through his land and did not want others to have the same advantage.

Mr. Giddings having come in, the chairman, Mr. Thurston introduced him to the audience, who gave three cheers for Hon. Moses Giddings, the Republican nominee for Mayor. When the house had become quiet again Mr. Giddings said:

Fellow Citizens,—I am much obliged for this expression of confidence in me and I only have to say that I have the welfare of this the city of my nativity, at heart, and shall always vote and act for its best interests. If it so happens that I come to represent the city as a whole then my private interests shall be subordinate to those of the city, and I shall endeavor to so discharge my duties as to meet the approval of my fellow citizens.

When the speaker had concluded, there being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

State vs. Martin Golden; drunkenness; fines $5 and costs and committed.

We have hardly deemed it worth while to notice a petty squib which has been going the rounds of the Democratic press, representing Senator Hamlin as a man of great wealth and even giving the figures of his alleged fortune of hundreds of thousands. The paragraph has been conspicuously quoted by papers in this State whose conductors are perfectly aware of its entire falsehood but who hesitate at no slander upon a political opponent. Senator Hamlin is too well known in this State for his character to be affected by such a plainly malicious invention, and his unblemished record throughout an extended public service renders any insinuation of mercenary proclivities ridiculous. The following remarks of the Portland Press will be recognized as eminently truthful and just by all whose opinions are of any value:
